THE JETT-WHITE TRIAL.

Affidavits Ruled Out and a Motion for Continuance Overruled at Cynthiana Court.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., July 27.—The defense in the case of Curtis Jett and Tom White filed affidavits and made a motion for the continuance of the trials. The motion was based on the alleged absence of material witnesses. The motion was overruled by Judge Osborne, who said that due diligence had not been observed in summoning witnesses. To-night it looks as though the trial will begin tomorrow.

A detail of soldiers was sent after Capt. Ewen and brought him back to Cynthiana and will keep him in camp until after he testifies. Judge Osborne announced that all prisoners would be provided with sufficient protection. He also gave written instructions as to the disposition of troops here.

Court was called to order shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. Sheriff James A. Leach and his deputies, D. N. Rees, D. R. Rees, A. H. Hardy, W. H. King, John Williams, R. L. Jameson, D. P. King, Dixie McKinley, J. J. Curle were sworn. They were instructed that six deputy sheriffs would be stationed at the court house door and search all persons who pass into the court room. They were also instructed not to allow anyone in the court room after the seating capacity of the court room is exhausted.

The large crowd already in the court room was not searched. Jett and White were brought in under guard of six deputy sheriffs. An enormous crowd attempted to follow them into the court room, but were stopped at the door. Judge Osborne directed all those who could not find seats to leave the court room. The list of thirty jurors who had been summoned was then called. Of the twenty-four jurors who responded, eight were excused because of illness in the family or for not being housekeepers. Only sixteen jurors remained. Judge Osborne announced to the attorneys that all jurors would be drawn from the wheel.

Judge Osborne sent Sheriff Leach to summon Colonel Williams to the court room.

Colonel Williams was asked if he knew that Ewen was going to leave last night. Colonel Williams replied:

"I knew about 7 o'clock that he was going to leave on the 9:20 train. I told him that I could not offer him any protection."

"Why did you not report that to me? The court had no intimation of his leaving."

Colonel Williams replied that he did not consider it his duty to do so.

Judge Osborne then announced publicly that no witnesses had ever asked for protection and that Colonel Williams had not mentioned the necessity of protecting witnesses in their conference. Judge Osborne then added that if any witness asked for protection he would be given the protection of the entire State militia if necessary.

Jett and White's attorneys filed affidavits alleging absence of witnesses and asked for continuance but Osborne overruled the motion.

A dispatch from Jackson states that in event of acquittal of the accused many citizens of that place would leave town.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete much, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by all druggists.

A Wolfe County Killing.

Aman named D. Crow went to the home of Alex Hatton, near Devil's creek and ran Hatton from the house, then drew his pistol and shot Mrs. Hatton twice, killing her. The difficulty arose over a game of cards in which the two men were engaged several days before. Mrs. Hatton destroyed all the cards and for this reason Crow shot her. Crow made his escape and a posse has been formed and are scouring the country in all directions for him.—Winchester Democrat.

Curtis Rose, of McCausey, was here the latter part of last week and wrote five insurance policies for the State Mutual Assurance Co. of Massachusetts. Curt is fast developing as a first-class life insurance agent, and with the assistance of an ad in THE HERALD is doing a good business.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

JUDGE H. F. PIERATT.

ASIDE from the boodling and rottenness that is coming of the departments in Washington, the government of the District of Columbia is being shown up just now, and it is about the most ramshackle and flimsy affair to be called the government of a great city that any man ever heard of. A young clerk, whose salary was $1,400 a year, was allowed to steal about $75,000 in the past five years for the reason that his books were never checked. His employers saw this young man plunging at the races, buying an interest in all sorts of businesses, riding around in a "red devil" automobile, and playing the "high roller" generally, and yet they never checked his books. There is hardly a day goes by that something crooked, something rotten, or something loose does not turn up in the District of Columbia building. There seems to be a lust of loot, a riot of rapacity and a fiduciary fandango in the capital of the nation. Long lease of power hath made the republicans money mad, and they are simply taking what they want and asking no odds. When the people tire of it they know how they can stop it. It is up to them.

The president has suddenly jammed into the labor unions of the country, and somebody is going to come out second best in a fight that will be on in furious fashion pretty soon. It seems that a man named Miller, an assistant foreman in the bookbinding department of the Government Printing office, was expelled from his union for good and sufficient cause. As the unions have been entrenched in the Government Printing Office in recent times, they have insisted that only members of the union in good standing shall be employed there, and the consequence was that Miller was dismissed from his position. He immediately began a fight. He appealed to the Civil Service Commission and to the President. He has been sustained by both. The President practically says to the labor unions that they may expel any man they please, but they must work under him whether he is in good standing in the union or not. The man has been reinstated, and now it is up to the unions. It is their move.

Tired Mothers.

It's hard work to take care of children and to cook, sweep, wash, sew and mend besides. Tired mothers should take Hood's Sarsaparilla—it refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, assures restful sleep.

Jim Faulkner was caught by a piece of falling slate in Doc Kash's coal bank last Monday morning and had he not been standing up at the time would have been killed. When the slate fell it caught him on the head and pushed him over, the slate breaking in two as he fell.

I have practiced medicine for 36 years and have consulted the leading physicians in this country in regard to a remedy for Dyspepsia, but have never been able to find anything that would affect a cure until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have suffered with stomach trouble for years. Could not eat anything but milk toast for months, but since I used Kodol I can eat anything and feel that my health is better than it ever was in my life. I cannot say enough for Kodol for it has saved my life and I know that it will cure any case of Dyspepsia if taken as directed.—M. D. Settle, M. D., Big Hill, Ky. Sold by all druggists.

F. N. Day is this week visiting his son, Willie Day, at Bethel, in Bath county, and with the exception of a two weeks visit to the World's Fair, Chicago, it is the first time he has taken any vacation in 30 years.

We miss the merry laughter of little Francis Nickell, while passing the office taking a cow to pasture. We hear she is at her grandfathers, at Salem, where there are plenty of cows, but she will be back again.

Fanny, the little daughter of Taylor Ringo and wife, is reported to have typhoid fever. Nearly all of this family has been sick within the past two months and there has been one death, little Earl.

Mrs. Fred Unrath.
President Country Club, Benton Harbor, Mich.

"After my first baby was born I did not seem to regain my strength although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband insisted that I take Wine of Cardui for a week and see what it would do for me. I did take the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

Wine of Cardui reinforces the organs of generation for the ordeal of pregnancy and childbirth. It prevents miscarriage. No woman who takes Wine of Cardui need fear the coming of her child. If Mrs. Unrath had taken Wine of Cardui before her baby came she would not have been weakened as she was. Her rapid recovery should commend this great remedy to every expectant mother. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow.
